Explanations

1. I always eat my food very _____.
✔ D) quickly
We use an adverb to say how we do something. Quick describes a thing; quickly describes how you eat.

2. I love driving _____. I know it's very dangerous.
✔ D) fast
Fast is the same as an adjective and an adverb: drive fast. The word fastly does not exist.

3. I know Sarah _____ because we play tennis together every Sunday.
✔ C) well
We need an adverb after know. The adverb of good is well. I know Sarah well means I know her very much, because we spend time together. Not good, because it is an adjective.

4. You always behave _____. Wait, think and then decide what you want to do!
✔ A) impatiently
The speaker says Wait, think, so the person does not wait. Impatiently means without waiting calmly.

5. Hazel is taking singing lessons this year but she still sings _____.
✔ D) badly
The word but tells us the lessons don't help yet. We need an adverb after sings: badly. Not bad, because it is an adjective.

6. A: Why are you looking at the hotel brochures _____?

B: I need a _____ holiday.
✔ A) carefully / good
Carefully (adverb) says how you look. Good (adjective) describes the noun holiday: a good holiday.

7. My aunt is a chef. She prepares every meal _____. I love eating at her restaurant.
✔ C) well
We need an adverb after prepares every meal. The adverb of good is well. Not good or delicious, because they are adjectives.

8. It's a _____ today. Shall we have a picnic?
✔ D) beautiful day
People have a picnic when the weather is nice, so it is a beautiful day.

9. Don't shout. I can hear you _____.
✔ D) well
There is no need to shout because I hear you without problems. The adverb of good is well: I can hear you well.

10. He is walking to work very _____. Is he late?
✔ A) fast
Is he late? shows he is in a hurry, so he walks fast.

11. Yummy. This cake tastes _____. Can I have another piece?
✔ B) delicious
After taste, look, feel, smell we use an adjective, not an adverb: This cake tastes delicious. Not wonderfully or well, because they are adverbs.

12. A: _____ your mother drive?

B: She drives _____ but _____.
✔ C) How does / fast / carefully
With drive we ask How does ...? The adverbs are fast (not fastly) and carefully.

13. I don't like this film. It is _____ and _____. Let's not watch it.
✔ D) bad / boring
After is we use adjectives: bad and boring. The speaker doesn't like the film, so the words are negative.

14. It's an awful day. It is raining _____.
✔ A) heavily
We say rain heavily for a lot of rain. Not heavy, because it is an adjective; hardly means 'almost not'.

15. My sister runs too _____. She can't catch me.
✔ A) slowly
She can't catch me, so she runs too slowly.

16. Our teacher explains everything _____ so nobody has questions.
✔ B) clearly
Nobody has questions, so the teacher explains clearly (in a way that is easy to understand).
