THE CAT AND THE FOX

One day, a cat hiked on a mountain. When he reached the peak, he met a fox. They began talking about how they get away from their enemies.

"I am very smart. I have billions of ideas. I can carve a tiny hole in a tree, and then climb in," the fox said. He added, "I have a lot of friends. If I am in trouble, I can call them to lend their help. I can escape an entire army if I have to!”

Then, the fox asked, “What are your potential plans?” The cat said, “I have only one plan.” The fox said, “I hope you have good fortune, then! Do you want me to be your tutor? I can teach you many things.” The cat said, “I guarantee that my plan works every time. We can quit talking about it.”

Soon, they saw a group of wolves. It was an emergency. The cat quickly used his plan. He ran up a tree. The fox could not decide which plan to use. “What should my initial move be? Should I consult my friends?” The fox felt intense anxiety. All he could do was spin in a circle. The wolves caught the fox. The cat was full of pride. This is proof that having a good plan is better than having many bad plans.

21. What is this story about?

A) Why cats have good fortune
B) How you make guarantees about plans
C) Why you need a good plan in an emergency
D) How foxes have the potential to make billions of plans

22. Why did the fox feel intense anxiety?

A) Because he tried to spin in circles.
B) Because his army of friends did not lend their help.
C) Because he did not know what his initial move should be.
D) Because he could not find a tree in which to carve a tiny hole.

23. Why was the cat full of pride at the end of the story?

A) He hiked to the peak of the mountain.
B) He had proof that his plan was best.
C) He did not let the fox become his tutor.
D) He loved to hide in the trees.

24. According to the passage, all the following are true EXCEPT _____.

A) the fox got caught by the wolves
B) the cat did not get caught by the wolves
C) the fox said he could consult his friends if he got into trouble
D) the fox decided to quit thinking of plans and just use one
