Explanations

1. Eric wants to be a vet because he _____ animals a lot.
✔ B) likes
This is a fact about Eric, so we use the present simple. With he, add -s: he likes. Not hates, because he wants to work with animals.

2. A: What _____ you like for dinner tonight?

B: Steak and chips.
✔ C) would
We use would like to ask what someone wants now or soon: What would you like for dinner?

3. A: What kind of books _____?

B: Science fiction and detective stories.
✔ A) do you like reading
This question asks what you enjoy in general, so we use do you like + -ing: What kind of books do you like reading? A question needs do before you.

4. A: Can I help you?

B: Yes, I _____ a bottle of mineral water.
✔ C) would like
I would like is a polite way to say I want, for example in a shop: I would like a bottle of water.

5. A: _____ you like windsurfing?

B: Yes, but I prefer swimming.
✔ A) Do
To ask about things someone enjoys in general, we say Do you like + -ing: Do you like windsurfing? Not Would, because Would you like is for an offer now.

6. Sue _____ reading a lot so she wants to study literature.
✔ B) likes
With she, add -s: Sue likes reading. She wants to study literature, so she enjoys reading.

7. I _____ hearing lies. I hate liars.
✔ D) can't stand
Can't stand means 'hate very much'. The clue is I hate liars.

8. A: What _____ Rick like doing in his free time?

B: Playing football.
✔ C) does
With Rick (he), the question uses does: What does Rick like doing? Not do, because do is for I, you, we and they.

9. On Sundays, I _____ getting up early. I never get up before twelve.
✔ D) hate
The clue is I never get up before twelve, so the speaker does not enjoy getting up early: I hate getting up early.

10. A: Are you interested _____ playing computer games?

B: Yes, I am.
✔ A) in
We always say interested in: Are you interested in playing computer games?

11. I'm not _____ singing but I enjoy _____ to.
✔ D) good at / listening
We say good at something, and after enjoy we use the -ing form: I enjoy listening. Not enjoy listen.

12. Gill _____ eating meat because she is a vegetarian.
✔ A) can't stand
A vegetarian does not eat meat, so Gill can't stand (hates) eating meat.

13. Tessa's crazy _____ sending text messages.
✔ B) about
We say crazy about something. It means 'like it very much': She's crazy about sending text messages.

14. A: I am hungry.

B: _____ a sandwich?
✔ C) Would you like
We use Would you like...? to offer something: Would you like a sandwich? Not Do you like, because that asks what you enjoy in general.

15. I am _____ ice-cream.
✔ D) crazy about eating
After I am, we need crazy about: I am crazy about eating ice-cream. We can't say I am love or I am like.

16. A: _____ with me?

B: Why not?
✔ A) Would you like to dance
We use Would you like to + verb to invite someone: Would you like to dance with me?
