Explanations

1. Itinerant does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ C) lost
   Itinerant means travelling from place to place, often for work: an itinerant preacher, itinerant farm workers. So wandering and traveling are synonyms. Lost does not fit, because an itinerant person knows where they are going; they just don't stay in one place.

2. To cull does NOT mean to _____.
   ✓ B) deceive
   To cull means to pick out or gather from a larger group, for example culling the best ideas from many reports. So select and gather are synonyms. Deceive has nothing to do with choosing or collecting.

3. To promulgate does NOT mean to _____.
   ✓ B) make certain
   To promulgate means to announce officially or spread widely, as in promulgate a new law or promulgate an idea. So make known and make public are synonyms. Make certain (to ensure) is a different idea.

4. Gratuitous does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ A) unsound
   Gratuitous means done without good reason, unnecessary, as in gratuitous violence in a film. So uncalled-for and unjustified are synonyms. Unsound means unreliable or not solid, which is a different meaning.

5. Nomenclature does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ B) a system of rules
   Nomenclature is a system of names or terms, especially one used to classify things, as in botanical nomenclature. So a system of names and a system of classification both fit. A system of rules does not, because nomenclature is about naming, not about rules of behaviour.

6. Droll does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ B) incredible
   Droll means amusing in an odd or dry way: a droll remark. So amusing and comical are synonyms. Incredible (hard to believe) is not part of its meaning.

7. Insatiable does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ B) desperate
   Insatiable means impossible to satisfy, always wanting more: an insatiable appetite. So greedy and hungry fit its meaning. Desperate means having lost hope or being in great need, which is a different idea.

8. To beguile does NOT mean to _____.
   ✓ A) expose
   To beguile means to trick or charm someone, often deceptively: beguiled by false promises. So deceive and mislead are synonyms. Expose is almost the opposite, because it means to reveal the truth.

9. Vindictive does NOT mean _____.
   ✓ A) wanting to win
   Vindictive means wanting to hurt someone who has hurt you: a vindictive ex-partner. So wanting revenge and wanting to get even are synonyms. Wanting to win is simple ambition, not revenge.

10. Replete does NOT mean _____.
    ✓ B) well-done
    Replete means well filled or fully supplied: a library replete with rare books. So well-stocked and well-supplied are synonyms. Well-done (cooked thoroughly, or done well) is unrelated.
