Explanations

1. Pam _____ with me again if I forget her birthday. So please remind me!
✔ D) won't speak
For a future result, use will / won't + verb. Forgetting her birthday makes Pam angry, so the result is negative: won't speak.

2. If you _____ your ice cream in the fridge, it _____.
✔ D) don't put / melts
This is a fact that is always true, so both parts use the present simple: If you don't put ... it melts. Ice cream melts when it isn't cold.

3. _____ if you see her this evening?
✔ B) Will you ask Cathy to come to my party
This is a question about the future, so we use Will you + verb. After if we use the present: if you see her.

4. If _____, we won't catch the bus.
✔ B) we don't leave now
After if we use the present simple, not will. We miss the bus when we don't leave now: If we don't leave now.

5. What _____ Sam do if he _____ the job?
✔ D) will / doesn't get
The result is in the future, so use will. After if use the present simple: What will Sam do if he doesn't get the job?

6. I will have a big dinner _____ home early.
✔ A) when I go
After when and if we use the present simple, not will: when I go home. If I not go is wrong. We need if I don't go.

7. You _____ a passport if you _____ to travel abroad.
✔ C) need / want
This is a general fact, so both parts use the present simple: You need ... if you want. Don't use will after if.

8. If there is an intruder, the alarm _____.
✔ D) goes off
This is what always happens, so we use the present simple. The alarm is like it, so the verb takes -s: goes off.

9. If you _____ to go out, I _____ dinner at home.
✔ C) don't want / will cook
Use the present simple after if and will + verb for the future result: If you don't want to go out, I will cook. Not want, because then cooking at home makes no sense.

10. We can't cash the check _____.
✔ D) unless you sign it
Unless means if not. We can't cash it if you don't sign it, so: unless you sign it. Don't use will after unless.

11. We _____ late if we _____.
✔ D) will be / don't hurry
Use will + verb for the future result and the present simple after if: We will be late if we don't hurry.

12. John _____ very upset unless he _____ this exam.
✔ D) will get / passes
Unless means if not, so the verb after it is positive: unless he passes = if he doesn't pass. The result uses will: will get upset.

13. If I _____ to bed early, I _____ tired tomorrow. I usually go to sleep early.
✔ B) don't go / will be
Use the present simple after if and will + verb for the future result: If I don't go to bed early, I will be tired tomorrow. Not won't be, because going to bed late makes you tired.

14. I can't check my emails _____.
✔ A) if the computer crashes
When a computer crashes, it stops working, so you can't check emails: if the computer crashes. Not unless the computer crashes, because that means if it doesn't crash.

15. If Henry _____ all this cake, he _____ sick.
✔ D) eats / will feel
After if use the present simple: Henry eats (with -s). For the future result use will: he will feel sick.

16. Sandra _____ completely different if _____ her hair.
✔ C) will look / she cuts
Sandra is a woman, so we use she. Use the present simple after if (she cuts) and will for the result (will look).
