Explanations

1. _____ isn't at home now. He is at work.
✔ D) My uncle
The next sentence says He is at work, so we need a man. An uncle is a man: My uncle isn't at home.

2. My _____ office is near our house.
✔ C) mother's
Use 's to show that something belongs to one person: the office belongs to my mother, so it is my mother's office.

3. Germany is a very big country and _____ capital city is Berlin.
✔ C) its
For a country or a thing we use its: its capital city means the capital city of Germany.

4. Jessica and _____ husband are on holiday in Paris.
✔ C) her
Jessica is a woman, so we say her husband.

5. A: John, _____ surname Smith?

B: No, _____ isn't. It is Walker. John Walker.
✔ C) is your / it
A is talking to John, so A says your surname. In the answer, it means the surname: No, it isn't.

6. _____ neighbours are on holiday in Antalya and _____ flat is empty now.
✔ D) Our / their
The neighbours are away, so their flat (the neighbours' flat) is empty: Our neighbours … their flat. Not our flat, because we are still at home.

7. This is my cousin. _____ name is Rick.
✔ B) His
Rick is a boy's name, so we use his: His name is Rick.

8. Dad isn't in _____ office now. _____ is at home.
✔ A) his / He
Dad is a man, so we say his office and He is at home.

9. A: _____ mother is a dentist?

B: Tim's.
✔ B) Whose
Whose asks who something or someone belongs to. The answer Tim's shows this: Whose mother? – Tim's. Not Who, because Who mother is wrong.

10. The _____ is in a mess.
✔ B) boys' room
For more than one person ending in -s (boys), we add only an apostrophe: the boys' room. Not room of the boys, because for people we usually use 's or s'.

11. A: _____ at the door?

B: It is Jason.
✔ A) Who is
We ask about a person with Who is …? The answer It is Jason tells us the person. Not Whose, because that asks who something belongs to.

12. Paris is the capital city _____ France.
✔ C) of
For places and things we often use of: the capital city of France.

13. A: _____ mother is our English teacher.

B: Really? It is very interesting.
✔ B) Peter's
The mother belongs to Peter, so we add 's: Peter's mother. Not Peters, because without the apostrophe it means more than one Peter.

14. Sandra and _____ friends. _____ are twelve years old.
✔ B) I are / We
Sandra and I means two people, so we use are: Sandra and I are friends. Then We means Sandra and me: We are twelve.

15. A: Why are you so sad, Tom?

B: Because today is _____.
✔ A) the end of the holiday
For things, we usually use of: the end of the holiday. Not end of holiday, because we need the before end and before holiday. The end the holiday is missing of, and the holidays end has neither of nor a possessive apostrophe, so it is not correct English.

16. A: Who is that?

B: She's _____ girlfriend. _____ name is Amanda.
✔ D) my / Her
B is talking about his own girlfriend, so he says my girlfriend. Amanda is a woman, so Her name is Amanda.
