Explanations

1. John works at an office downtown, and I _____.
✔ A) do too
The first part uses works (present simple), so we use do after I: I do too. Not does, because does goes with he, she or it.

2. He is from the United Kingdom, and they _____.
✔ C) are too
The first part uses is, so we repeat the verb be. With they we say are: they are too.

3. Sue and Tom are studying at college, and I _____.
✔ C) am too
The first part uses are studying, so we repeat be. With I we say am: I am too. Not do, because the verb here is be, not a present simple verb.

4. Your books were on the desk, and my books _____.
✔ A) were too
The first part uses were (past), so we use were again: my books were too. Not are, because the sentence is in the past.

5. My uncle has green eyes, and my brother _____.
✔ B) does too
The first part uses has (present simple), so we use does with my brother (he): my brother does too.

6. I can speak three languages, and Eduardo _____.
✔ A) can too
The first part uses can, so we repeat can: Eduardo can too.

7. They went to Hawaii on their last summer holiday, and we _____.
✔ C) did too
The first part uses went (past simple), so we use did: we did too. Not were, because went is not a form of be.

8. His sports car is really fast, and mine _____.
✔ B) is too
The first part uses is, so we repeat is: mine is too.

9. Birds and insects can fly in the air, and bats _____.
✔ C) can too
The first part uses can, so we repeat can: bats can too.

10. I ordered a large pizza at the restaurant, and Henry _____.
✔ C) did too
The first part uses ordered (past simple), so we use did: Henry did too. Not was, because ordered is not a form of be.

11. The traffic was really heavy, so I was late for class. My teacher _____.
✔ C) was too
The sentence uses was late (past of be), so we use was: My teacher was too. Not did, because the verb is be, not an action verb.

12. I know the answer to the question, and Susan _____.
✔ A) does too
The first part uses know (present simple), so we use does with Susan (she): Susan does too.

13. Lions and tigers are dangerous animals. Bears _____.
✔ B) are too
The first sentence uses are, so we repeat are: Bears are too.

14. I could drive a car when I was sixteen, and James _____.
✔ B) could too
The first part uses could, so we repeat could: James could too.

15. Stewart had a great time at the party. We _____.
✔ A) did too
Here had is the past simple of have, so we use did: We did too. Not were, because had is not a form of be.

16. I saw the new exhibit at the museum last week. Sarah _____.
✔ B) did too
The first sentence uses saw (past simple), so we use did: Sarah did too. Not was, because saw is not a form of be.
