ANSWER KEY WITH EXPLANATIONS

Verbal Advantage – Level 01 Word 11 – Word 20 MCQ Test

Verbal Advantage - Level 01-10 Vocabulary Tests · 10 questions · Online test and questions PDF: https://englishtestsonline.com/verbal-advantage-level-01-word-11-word-20-mcq-test/

1	B	2	B	3	A	4	A	5	A	6	B	7	A	8	B	9	A	10	A

Explanations

1. The capricious person is always predictable.
✓ B) false
Capricious means changing your mind or mood suddenly and without reason, so a capricious person is unpredictable, not predictable. Example: The capricious manager changed the schedule three times in one week.

2. A blatant attempt is quiet and inconspicuous.
✓ B) false
Blatant means very obvious and done openly, often shamelessly. A blatant attempt is the opposite of quiet and inconspicuous. Example: a blatant attempt to avoid paying taxes.

3. When attendance at a company function is obligatory, that means you have to go whether you want to or not.
✓ A) true
Obligatory means required by a rule, law or custom; you have no choice. If attendance is obligatory, you must go whether you want to or not. Its opposite is optional.

4. Something negligible can be disregarded.
✓ A) true
Negligible means so small or unimportant that it is not worth considering, so it can safely be disregarded. Example: The difference in price was negligible.

5. An adamant person refuses to compromise.
✓ A) true
Adamant means firm and unwilling to change your opinion or decision, so an adamant person refuses to compromise or give in. Example: She was adamant that she would not resign.

6. Something sporadic occurs at regular intervals.
✓ B) false
Sporadic means happening only now and then, irregularly or in scattered instances. Something that occurs at regular intervals is periodic, not sporadic. Example: sporadic showers throughout the day.

7. If you take the lead on an important project, you are in the vanguard.
✓ A) true
The vanguard is the front part of an advancing army, and figuratively the leading position in a movement or field. If you take the lead on an important project, you are in the vanguard. Example: The company is in the vanguard of green technology.

8. When two people concur, they argue or disagree.
✓ B) false
Concur means to agree or to have the same opinion. When two people concur, they agree; they do not argue or disagree. Example: The doctors concurred with the diagnosis.

9. Precociousness in a child may be a sign of above-average intelligence.
✓ A) true
Precociousness (or precocity) means developing abilities or maturity much earlier than usual. A precocious child who reads or reasons far beyond his or her age may well be showing above-average intelligence.

10. An aloof person is unwilling to associate with others.
✓ A) true
Aloof means distant, reserved and keeping apart from others, showing little interest in being friendly or involved. An aloof person is unwilling to associate closely with others. Example: He remained aloof from his colleagues.

Practise more on englishtestsonline.com
Take this test online, download its questions PDF, and find thousands of free English tests:
englishtestsonline.com · scan the code for this test
englishtestsonline.com