Explanations

1. I can't afford this expensive dress. Have you got _____?
✔ A) a cheap one
The dress is too expensive, so the speaker wants a cheap dress. We say a cheap one (one = dress) because it is one thing.

2. My sister has got a big room but I have got a small _____.
✔ A) one
We use one so we don't repeat the word room: a small one = a small room.

3. These plates are dirty. _____, please?
✔ C) Can I have a clean one
A question starts with Can I ...?, not I can .... The plates are dirty, so the speaker wants a clean one (a clean plate).

4. My favourite season is winter. Which _____ is your favourite season?
✔ D) one
Which one asks about one thing from a group. Here one means one season.

5. My car is very old, so I need to buy _____.
✔ B) a new one
The car is old, so the speaker needs a new car. For one car we say a new one. Not new one: we need a before it.

6. Have we got _____ money to eat out?
✔ B) enough
Enough means as much as we need. It goes before a noun: enough money.

7. _____ are comfortable? The brown chairs or the black chairs?
✔ B) Which ones
Chairs is plural and the verb is are, so we say Which ones. We use which, not what, when we choose from a small group.

8. Only _____ in the fifth grade is in the football team.
✔ C) one of the boys
We say one of the + plural noun: one of the boys. The verb is shows it is one person.

9. I have got two jumpers. _____ is blue and _____ is black.
✔ D) One / the other
With two things we say one ... the other: One is blue and the other is black. Not the others, because there is only one more jumper.

10. I can't do my homework on my own because it's _____ difficult.
✔ C) too
Too + adjective means more than is OK: too difficult, so I can't do it alone.

11. My sister is only ten. She isn't old _____ to put on make-up.
✔ B) enough
Enough comes after an adjective: old enough. She is ten, so she is not old enough.

12. It's _____ late to take the bus. We can go by taxi.
✔ C) too
Too late means it is later than OK, so we can't take the bus. Too goes before the adjective.

13. I can't reach the top shelf because _____.
✔ D) I am not tall enough
Enough goes after the adjective: not tall enough. Not not enough tall.

14. I am _____ to eat more. I can't taste the dessert.
✔ C) too full
Too full to eat means I am so full that I can't eat. Too goes before the adjective.

15. This music is _____ to hear. Can you turn it up, please?
✔ C) too quiet
The speaker wants the music louder, so it is too quiet to hear. Too goes before the adjective.

16. This soup is _____. Can I have another, please?
✔ A) too salty to eat
The speaker wants another soup, so this one is bad: too salty to eat. Not salty enough, because that means it is OK.
